REPUBLICANS MAY COMPROMISE IN 8TH

Move On Foot To Make Bastin Committeeman and Wallace Delegate

Reports have it that before the republican county conventions are held at the various county seats in the 8th district next Saturday that a compromise will have been reached between the candidates for the various party honors. In other words the dove of peace is said to have been invited to step in and compose the differences that exist in regard to selection of delegates, district chairman and other honors that may be conferred.

Rumors are floating about to the effect that all three of the candidates for State Executive Committeemen will retire from the race, and that a new man, not hitherto mentioned, will be given the honor without opposition. Up to now Will O. Mays, of Richmond, Will Hanna, of Shelby county, and George D. Florence, of Lincoln county, have been active for the place, which Mr. Florence has held for the past four years. Mr. Hanna is now Commissioner of Agriculture at Frankfort, and Mr. Mays, a first cousin of Gov. Morrow, is also in a very strong position in the race. His friends have been claiming that he has the race won.

The compromise man said to have been agreed upon, is Henry Bastin, of Garrard county, who is one of the best known young republicans in the district. He has never held office and his selection is being urged, it is said, as a happy compromise between friends of all the candidates, so as to preserve party harmony in the district. The scrap between friends of the three candidates in the field promises to become rather interesting when the district convention is held at Danville, March 2, unless some arrangement is reached. Friends of Mr. Mays are insisting that he must be "taken care of" properly in any arrangement that is made as it is conceded that he is the strongest candidate for the place and in a position to wield an influence that others cannot secure.

Such a compromise as above outlined, while not finally determined upon, if arranged, will also mean that William Wallace, of Richmond, will be assured election as a delegate to the national convention at Chicago. At present, it is understood that a warm contest for this honor is also brewing, and selection of the popular young local republican without opposition would prove a very strong move by his party.

Oil May Shoot Up Again

The market for Pennsylvania crude oil was thrown wide open at Pittsburgh last week, by the announcement of the Joseph Seep Purchasing Agency that, beginning March 16, it would no longer sell oil to individual refiners. The reason was that it did not have enough oil for its own business. So scarce is oil of all kinds that scouts have been sent into the different fields in the hope of picking up oil in sufficient quantities to keep the independent refiners going. One refinery, it was stated, was trying to "buy oil by the trainload," while others, not so firmly entrenched financially, were endeavoring to get it in smaller quantities. The action of the Seep Agency, it was said by veteran oil men, would return the market to the conditions which prevailed years ago, when there was no powerful buying agency through which prices were stabilized. No one would predict to what heights quotations would go but refiners, without their own crude production, it was stated, would be compelled to get oil wherever it could and pay such prices as producers saw fit to demand.

UNIMPROVED FARM SELLS AT $400 AN ACRE

Master Commissioner Terrill Makes Record Sale of Broadus Land At Round Hill

What is said by real estate men to be the highest priced land sold in Madison county in a long time was the sale of 72 acres belonging to the estate of the late W. T. Broadus, to his son, W. D. Broadus, Friday at $400.25 an acre. The land was wholly unimproved, without even a barn upon the premises. Master Commissioner R. B. Terrill handled the sale. This farm is in the Round Hill section about 10 miles from Richmond, and on the Kirkville and Kentucky River pike, where it is claimed the farmers raise the finest tobacco in the world.

Mr. Terrill sold Saturday to wind up the Minerva Chrisman estate her farm of 44 acres in "Possum Kingdom" west of Berea, to E. T. Hulet. This farm brought $63.85 an acre.

For the estate of the late Miss Ann Eades, Mr. Terrill sold a house and lot in Union City to Roger Eades for $1,508, and a tract of land containing 54 acres in the same part of the county to Rodney Eades at $62.50 an acre.

To wind up the estate of Sallie Ross, colored, he sold a house and lot on Race street in Richmond to A. H. Thomas, for $451.

SAY THEY MADE ONLY 35 PER CENT ON SHOES

(By Associated Press.) Louisville, Feb. 23—Granville L. Burton, vice president of C. L. Burton & Starks Company, of Louisville, dealers in men's furnishings, today denied the accuracy of the figures before the United States Commission Saturday in which the firm was charged with profiteering. He asserted the shoe department did not operate on a 90 per cent margin as stated but on a 35 per cent gross profit. He admitted such testimony was given but that it is incorrect.

RESERVE BOARD COMES TO RESCUE

Federal Financial System To Be Employed To Restore Pre-War Conditions

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, Feb. 23—Determination of the Federal Reserve Board to exert the full power of the reserve banking system in regulating and controlling the credit situation along a course designed to aid commerce and industry in restoring the pre-war equilibrium was disclosed today by the Board's annual report. With this as its announced peace time policy, the Board was prepared to "test the ability of its system to check expansion and induce healthy liquidation."

Recommendations are also made to Congress to permit the Board to establish normal maximum lines of credit accommodation for a number of banks with an ascending scale of rates above that line, thus operating as an automatic check on a large scale of credit expansion. The country is warned, however, against too rapid deflation, some measures to bring about deflation being termed worse than inflation itself.

HOOVER TELLS HIS VIEWS ON TREATY

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 23—Herbert C. Hoover, former Food Administrator declared in an address at Johns Hopkins University today his opposition to making ratification of the treaty with Germany an issue in the presidential campaign. He insisted injection of the arguments against reservations would "obscure our pressing domestic issues by a conflict over questions, about which the country has already made up its mind."

He believed the American people adhered to the League of Nations but that a majority of "our people are convinced of the necessity of reservations with the League."

LOCAL MARKET MAY RUN ON TO MARCH 15

Looks Like Over 9,000,000 Lbs. Will Be Sold In Richmond This Season

All indications point to the Richmond market selling over 9,000,000 pounds the present season, a remarkable achievement in every way. The building of other sales warehouses in this territory does not seem to have affected the local market in the least, though many had thought that the poundage sold over the local breaks might be considerably affected. Last year Richmond sold only a little over 8,000,000 pounds while that figure has almost been reached here so far and there is lots of weed out yet.

Sales were resumed here Monday and will continue on this week and next. The date of the closing of the local market has not been determined on, but from the way tobacco continues to roll in, it may not close until March 15th. The Lancaster warehouse has announced that it will close this week, on the 27th.

Supervisor Sales Stone Norman has given out the following report of sales up to and including Friday, February 20th:

Home House sold 4,525,410 lbs., for $2,144,557.42; Madison House sold 3,125,185 lbs., for $1,482,373.44; total sales 7,650,595 lbs., for $3,626,930.76.

Robert McKinney is a son of Mr. R. H. McKinney, of the firm of Sewell and McKinney, of this city, and has been making his home with his uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Walker McKinney, at Georgetown, since the death of his mother.

JOE SEVERANCE TO GO WITH REDPATH

Rev. Joseph Severance, representing the State Y. M. C. A., took P. C. Dix's place on the program at the union services at the Methodist church Sunday evening. As usual Dr. Severance pleased everyone with his remarks. He is helping the Y. M. C. A. make up its budget for the ensuing year, as it is badly in need of money for the great work it is doing. A little later Dr. Severance goes on the platform with the Redpath Bureau, the greatest chautauqua organization of them all. He will deliver a humorous lecture, and those who have heard him know that the Redpath people have made a real "find." He will have a number of western states on his itinerary.

RAILROAD BILL ON ITS WAY IN SENATE

But Labor Officials Again Object To Wage Settlement and Want It Vetoed

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, Feb. 23—The conference report on the railroad bill passed Saturday night by the House, was called up in the Senate today by Senator Cummins, Chairman of the interstate Commerce Committee, who obtained unanimous consent for immediate consideration. Its speedy adoption is predicted. Cummins emphasized that the rate guarantee section did not take a dollar out of the public treasury. With respect to the labor provisions of the bill, Cummins said he "is utterly unable to understand the opposition they have aroused among labor leaders. For they leave all men free, whether employees or employers, to do whatever they please at any time, at any place or under any circumstances."

Labor Objects Again

Washington, Feb. 23—President Wilson's proposal for settlement of the railroad wage controversy and compromise of the railroad bill was bitterly assailed in a conference here today of railroad union officials and grievance committeemen who were called to Washington to discuss the settlement policy laid down by the President. Indications were that a strong element, perhaps a majority of union leaders, would demand that labor stand together, in appeal to the President to veto the Cummins-Esch measure.

LAYS ALL BLAME ON WILSON, OF COURSE

(By Associated Press.)

Columbus, Feb. 23—Declaring the republican party "will welcome" the responsibility of Americanizing the peace treaty, United States Senator Warren G. Harding, at a rally of Ohio republicans here today, held President Wilson solely responsible for the Senate's delay in ratifying the peace treaty.

"Essentially alone he negotiated the surrender of American nationality and still essentially alone one in a hundred million, he blocks its final disposition," Harding said.

Dalrymple, prohibition director of six central states, gathered 30 picked agents here today preparatory to leading an expedition into Iron county, Michigan, to "clean up" the county and arrest county officials who are said to have interfered with federal liquor raids last week.

What is called a "rebellion against prohibition" has broken out in Iron County, Michigan. Local officials seized 11 barrels of wine, which federal prohibition officers had taken from a mine, and a vigorous fight is in prospect.

Reports from the bedside Monday stated that both patients are improving, there many relatives and friends here will be glad to know.

GARRARD AND BOYLE ARE WORKING HARD

On Federal Highway Plans And Madison Should Not Lag—Mr. Ledford's Strong Argument

Those Garrard and Boyle folks are going about this Federal Highway proposition in a way that means business. Both are boosting the bond issues they will vote on to provide their counties' funds to build the model road. Fortunately Madison does not have to vote bonds, but only raise about $27,000 by subscription, and most of that will be raised along the Lancaster pike which will be rebuilt. Pledges are now being made to help the good cause by other public spirited citizens.

People all along the proposed highway are taking the liveliest interest in it and with such splendid support, it cannot fail. A prominent citizen of Paint Lick, Mr. R. H. Ledford, writes a strong argument for the highway in this week's Lancaster Record. It is so good that the Daily Register republishes it herewith:

Paint Lick, Ky., Feb. 17, 1920

The Central Record: You have asked for the citizens of Garrard county to express themselves on the bond issue of the Federal Highway, or in other words, "Do we want better roads for less money?"

Our roads are the arteries of trade and commerce, and are the making or unmaking of our country, and this being the case, I have my first man to see that opposes this bond issue.

Over and above all else, let our different county administrations give us good roads and good good schools and when these two things are a living reality, you will see people wanting to come to Garrard county, and will see none that wants to leave.

When we consider better roads with no increase of taxation, why shouldn't we be in favor of it?

The Federal Government wants to give us $200,000 to be expended on our main pike leading thru the county. If we don't get this money, this same identical road must be kept up with county funds, but if we vote these bonds and pay our 40 or 45 per cent of this cost, then the road money is released, to apply on all side pikes that otherwise would have to be expended on the main pike.

And then again, the word "Federal" when coupled to our road, is sufficient guarantee that this road will not only be built but well kept up. Let one and all work together for this road, and let no one be found pulling back. R. H. LEDFORD.

FORD VISITS PULASKI

Henry Ford visited Pulaski county the other day and the Somerset Journal is all puffed up over it. It said: Henry Ford, millionaire automobile manufacturer, of Detroit, Michigan, passed thru Somerset en route to McCreary county on a business trip. He spent sometime at Bauer and Stearns. Mr. Ford was on a deal for some coal and timber lands in McCreary and he was looking over the property. He had five of his experts with him. It said that the Bauer people have interested him in their property and it is likely that he will purchase it. L. B. Lowenthal had a long talk with Mr. Ford at Stearns and he told him that he was very favorably impressed with this section of the state and he saw great possibilities ahead for her citizens. Mr. Ford said that the one thing necessary to progress was lacking, however, and that was good roads.

Held Under $200 Bond

Huston Quisenberry had an examining trial in the Madison quarterly court, Friday, on a warrant charging him with breaking into the store room of Charley Burnam, colored, and taking therefrom an automobile tire, a pistol and held him over to await the action of the May grand jury under a bond of $200 which he failed to give and he was remanded to jail.

Be Prepared—Strengthen and Build Up Your Blood With Pepto-Mangan.

If it true that you are not feeling your best—if you have that "always tired" feeling and no interest or enthusiasm—then you should be careful of influenza.

It is thin-blooded, anemic people that disease strikes first. The fact that you have had a very few serious illnesses has nothing to do with it. Everyone gets run down occasionally, and when they do, the blood is in no condition to fight off disease germs, because it has not enough red corpuscles. It is the red corpuscles of the blood that fight disease and save you from sickness.

You simply can't afford to take chances when influenza is striking down thousands everywhere. Fortify your blood—build it up with the pleasant tonic Pepto-Mangan.

And should you be just recovering from influenza, you need Pepto-Mangan because your blood has exhausted its strength. Pepto-Mangan will help build you up.

Pepto-Mangan is widely and heartily endorsed by physicians.
It is effective and easy to take.

and other places of amusement. As one correspondent described it, "a deadly pall fell over the city and was only ended by a small shipment of newsprint which enabled the three papers to issue jointly until a larger supply could be procured for their individual use."

England experienced the same psychic phenomenon. Newspaper reading is regarded by some of the "intellectuals" only as a habit and a bad one at that, but it is a habit which has taken such hold on great masses of men that when it is broken off times does not cure the habit, but tends to accentuate its effects on its millions of victims.

So accustomed do men and women become to the daily delivery of their newspaper, that they rarely realize how dependent upon it they are for a knowledge of things which are happening in their own community or elsewhere in the world. The people of the British isles had this brought home to them at Christmas time, when for two days there was not a daily newspaper printed there. The London correspondent of the Philadelphia Record and the New York World
thus describes the effect upon the newspaper readers:

"Imagine a curtain dropped between the British isles and the remainder of the world for two whole days at a time when every hour may bring forty new sensations, domestic or foreign.
That is our experience at the moment, with the complete suspension of the newspapers over the Christmas holidays."

"Anything may have happened in the last forty-eight hours without our getting an inkling of it. Trotsky may have sent Christmas greetings to Clemenceau; Senator Lodge may have accepted the league of nations; De-Valera may have condeoled with Lord
French, or D'Annunzio may have voved to renounce publicity forever, but we were ignorant of it all. Indeed, anything short of earthquake may have happened in London itself, yet residents not immediately affected can know nothing of it."

"We might as well be living in the middle ages instead of in an era in which the collection and transmission
of news well-nigh reached perfection.
The sensation of having no newspaper at breakfast is devastating in its feeling of isolation. After following from day to day the development of epoch-making events, our interest excited to the boiling point, and then forty-eight hours of impenetrable silence, it is little short of maddening. It proves the value of the public press, but the cost of the lesson is too great. The most inveterate giber at the newspaper would have given the daintiest morsel of his Christmas breakfast for a glimpse even at the particular newspaper he despises in ordinary circumstances."

To Contest Bequest To Dog
Because $1,000 was bequeathed for care of her dog, efforts will be made by relatives to contest the will of Mrs. Bessie White Burgess of Bourbon county. She left all property to her sister, with the exception of $1,000, "which is to be used for the support of my dog Dick. If the interest is not sufficient for him to be kept in comfort, that is, being well fed,
have a bed in the house by a fire
and treated well in every way, let the principal be used to such sum that it will last his lifetime.
Dick must have three meals
daily," the will said.

On the Way.

about an aerial funeral? Well, that's a start in the right direction, anyway.

After parcelling his estate among wife and children, Robert S. Sprake of Georgetown provided in his will that an ancient brass clock, which had chimed in his bedroom for 80 years, should remain on that wall as long as the homestead was in the possession of his descendants.

A stirring chapter was written into the lives of 82 aged wards when they were transferred from the historic Fayette Poor House to a $70,000 building near Lexington, with stream heat, electric lights, baths and other modern conveniences they had never known.

"WEBB OF DECEIT" STRONG WOMAN'S HEART DRAMA

Dolores Cassinelli returns to local theatres next Tuesday for one day in her newest picture, "The Web of Deceit". It is a forceful drama that turns the light on a cross section of a woman's heart. In writing the story, Finis Fox designed a dual role for Miss Cassinelli that every opportunity to display her talent as an emotional actress.

"The Web of Deceit" is woven around the efforts of Wanda Hubbard to cheat Lucille, who believes herself to be Wanda's sister, out of her rightful inheritance. Wanda's carefully laid plans work to her advantage, but happens is not permanently built on a foundation of deceit, as Wanda learned when the structure she built collapsed and carried her down with it.

This Pathe feature marks the debut of Edwin Carewe, the well known director, as a producer. As head of Edwin Carewe Productions, Inc., he has not, however, laid aside his megaphone and accordingly, "The Web of Deceit" was given his personal direction. The cast in support of Miss Cassinelli includes Mitchell Harris, Hugh Camerson, Franklyn Hanna and Letty Ford.

CUT HIS WIFE AND AN AGED VISITOR

James Miller, a railroad employee living in the East End of the city, is in jail on a charge of maliciously cutting his wife and James Noland, an aged man of the same neighborhood. Noland claims that he was innocently stopping by the Miller house when Miller came in and drawing his pocket knife began to slash at his wife and Noland. Miller says that Noland was paying too much attention to Mrs. Miller. The woman was badly cut in the side and Noland received several cuts on his face. Miller will have his trial Friday in county court.

UNION CITY

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Keene and son, Master James Haden and Mrs. Tim Foley, of Lexington, have been the guests of Mr. Haden Keene and Mrs. Annie Tevis.

The play given by the Waco High school at the Union High school building Thursday evening was a decided success from every standpoint. You made a good showing and we wish you could come often.

The public sale here Thursday of real estate of the late Mrs. Ann Eades by Master Commissioner R. B. Terrill was well attended and the amount received exceeded the expectations of many. Mr. Terrill played himself and as an auctioneer is really one of the "big guns". The Union house and lot went to R. H. Eades, of Winchester, for $1508 and the farm on the river containing 54 acres went to Rodney Eades, of Clark county for $3429.

Socially, this section has been unusually active the entire winter season. Besides a score of 500 parties there have been various other entertainments. By the way of remarks a new organization has developed. A number of choice sections from the erstwhile D. S. A. Club and the notoriously gay Sweat Bee Gang have joined hands (and circles to the left) forming an aggregation known as the Tanglefoot Set. From a time immemorial the fiddle has reigned supreme and maintained against all rivals its bearing on the frolicsome leaders to feet—skip-tum-a-loo!

Laboratory Tested Feed

Purina Cow Chow is laboratory tested and machine mixed. This means that your cows get a uniform quality ration, which prevents them from going "off feed" and insures maximum milk flow.

You know that if a cow is thrown off her feed by improper mixing or feeding off-quality grain, it may take days to get her "back." This results in a heavy loss of milk.

Purina Cow Chow

is your best safeguard against such losses. Every ingredient that enters into Purina Cow Chow must come up to a rigid standard of quality.

Not only is the quality of the grain guarded, but the ingredients are accurately measured and mixed by machinery. For that reason, Purina Cow Chow is bound to be

ABSOLUTELY UNIFORM

Just right elements are included to balance the roughage and silage that you produce. Your milk records will prove the feeding value of Purina Cow Chow. Let us put your herd on a test.
